Note from the Men's Rector:

Hello Everyone,

I wish that I had some great words of wisdom to pass on to you, something that was overwhelmingly inspiring, but that just wouldn't be me. What I do have and hope to keep is a great connection to a great community. I certainly wouldn't be the person I am today if it weren't for the caring people that have become my friends from this community. They help keep me, for the most part, grounded and open to the graces that God has to offer. I really hope that the connection I have come to know is what others get from our community.

Sometimes, as newer community members, we just don't know where we fit in. With a few CEW's coming up we have plenty of opportunities to share "community". There are many ways on the weekend to help. Attend Commissionings, Eucharistic chapels, Speakers chapels, writing Palanca, help in the kitchen, and most important to me, attend the Closings. What an awesome way to show support to the Candidates and Teams on the weekends. I know sometimes there are people that really want to help but never get a call. Please feel free to call Ann Dolezal (683-9646), the next Women's Rector, or me (684-5768) if you would like to volunteer to help out. We will get you connected to the people that need help.

Everything is falling into place for the Men's weekend and I am looking forward to our Commissioning coming up on January 16th at 6:00pm at the Faith Formation Center. Please keep all the men that are attending the weekend in your prayers. More information about the weekend, Chapel times, Team, Closing, etc, is in this Newsletter. Also check the web site often for any changes and updates on Candidates. We are truly blessed to have all of your support.

God Bless,

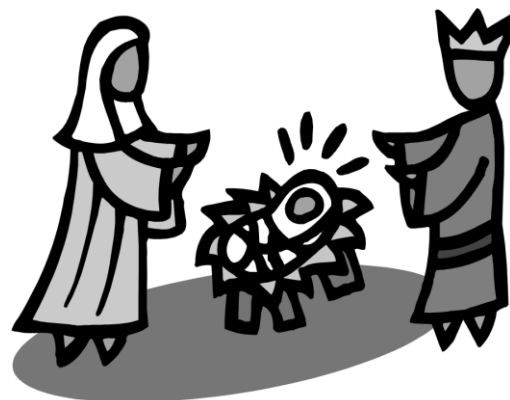

Mike Valenta

Note from the Women's Rector:

Our Fall Women's Retreat was Amazing. We couldn't have planned for a better flow of the weekend. We had a wonderful time preparing and experiencing the joy that comes with each weekend. I know that the Holy Spirit has touched and blessed many people and opened many hearts that were once lost. As we are all preparing for Christmas, let us not forget the real reason that we celebrate this wonderful season. Faith is what holds us together as we move forward with our lives. I am proud to be a member of this CEW community and it was a great honor to be able to share the experience of being Rector with such an Amazing Team!! Please join me as we welcome our newest members....Dolores Anhalt, Tammy Brunner, Kathy Guay, Jan Henschel, Joyce Junk, Eleanore Juza, Joyce Katzka, Kari Kruser, Debbie Lonick, Sandy Murphy, Joleen Wilhelm, Eileen Zdanowski.

From the Spiritual Director...

Asking for Peace – Deacon Bob

I want to write inspiring words, but will they be read – will anyone hear? Someone once said, "What you are doing is so loud, I can't hear what you are saying." Perhaps, I am always speaking in everything I do and choose. My minor actions and my slight attitude might just be the only words that come through. Does everyone hear what is really in me? I am troubled by the thought. Lord Jesus, help me to be settled inside. I don't ask for perfection but for peace that I may share myself with others. And, that others may then feel your peace through me, even as I struggle in my steps and in my words.

Eucharistic Chapel

The Eucharistic Chapel is a place for prayer and silent reflection in the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Chapel is located in St. Francis Assisi – Waldo Site Church in the front on the east side of the altar. This is a round-the-clock silent prayer ministry. As part of your palanca, you have an opportunity to pray as the men eat, sleep, and meet. Everyone including family and friends are welcome to the Eucharistic Chapel. You may quietly “drop in,” but we also need people to make this a ministry for the weekend. Go on line to check out the schedule at www.lakeshorecew.org/members

To sign up on the Eucharistic Chapel Watch schedule, please contact:

George Jacobsen @ gciacobsen@comcast.net or by calling 920-242-2437

Speaker's Chapel

Come pray for the speakers as well as for those listening to the talk. ## 2011 Ladies Spring Weekend

Hi everyone,

I just wanted to give you a heads up on the Ladies Spring Weekend, as there will not be another newsletter prior to the commissioning.

This will be a busy time for the CEW community, as we will be finishing the Men’s weekend with a closing on Sunday, February 20, 2011, and moving right into the preparations for the Women’s weekend the next Sunday, February 27, 2011 at 3 p.m. at the Faith Formation Center.

We hope to see you all at both events, to welcome the new candidates from the men’s weekend and to pray for the team and new candidates for the ladies. Your support would be greatly appreciated.

Blessings to you all,

Ann Dolezal

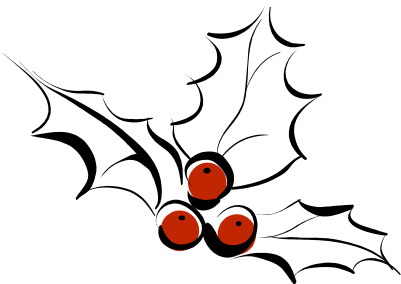

2011 Ladies Spring Weekend Rector

WANTED.....

If you would like to help out in any way with meal prep, making food, donating food, etc. for one of our weekends, please contact Lynn Krupka at 684-0143 or email sjkrupka@tm.net Lynn will make sure the kitchen people for that weekend are notified of your generous offering(s). Thank you so much, every little bit counts!

Lent by Candlelight

This will be a precursor to the Easter Season and Soup and Stations. We journey through the weeks of Lent by way of scripture, symbols, ritual, and music. Come join us for this family friendly (things for the kids to do) event in the social hall of the Faith Formation Center. The date for this wonderful event to be announced.....

Merry Christmas
&
Happy New Year!
