

The CEW Spirit

A Note from the Fall 2013 Women's Rector:

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart”

The November 8-10th Women's CEW is fast approaching! I am so excited and feel truly blessed to be on my spiritual journey in the role of Rector. I can definitely feel the power of the Holy Spirit at work. I will admit, when I first started preparing for the weekend, I was worried about everything falling into place the way I thought it should. Until I took to heart the true meaning of my favorite verse; Proverbs 3:5-6, did I understand it was not about me at all:

“Trust the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.”

My eyes were opened! I then understood that it is his will, not mine! I needed to step out of the driver's seat and allow God to take over the wheel! So I ask you to continue to pray for the team, candidates, community, and for those still discerning whether to attend the weekend.

TRUST-BELIEVE-OBEY

Love and Blessings,

Char Haug

From the Spiritual Director:

“Go Therefore”

The last words in the Gospel of Matthew are "Go, therefore and make disciples..." Pope Francis is telling us we need to reach out to the poor. Bishop Ricken quoted a statistic that 54% of the people in the pews, those who come every week, do not have a personal experience with Jesus. So, most are poor in spirit. We know this to be true, as it was true for us before we attended a CEW. How are we to make disciples? How are we to keep our faith active and alive? We are to invite people and it is best that we invite them face-to-face. We have a chance to change someone's life in a fundamental way. The Holy Spirit does the real work once candidates get there and hear others sharing their stories. But now, if we are to pick up the yoke that Jesus has given to us, we are to invite. We have an incredible opportunity to make a list and check off those we have invited. We can then rest knowing that we have heard his last words: "Go therefore and make disciples."

St. Theresa's Prayer

May today there be peace within.

May you trust that you are exactly where you are meant to be.

May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith.

May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you...

May you be content knowing you are a child of God...

*Let this presence settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to SING,
DANCE, LOVE, AND PRAISE!*

It is there for each and every one of you.

Eucharistic Chapel

The Eucharistic Chapel is a place for prayer and silent reflection in the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Chapel is located in St. Francis Assisi – Waldo Site Church in the front on the east side of the altar. This is a round-the-clock silent prayer ministry. As part of your palanca, you have an opportunity to pray as the women eat, sleep, and meet. Everyone including family and friends are welcome to the Eucharistic Chapel. You may quietly “drop in,” but we also need people to make this a ministry for the weekend. Go on line to check out the schedule at www.lakeshorecew.org/members

To sign up for the Eucharistic Chapel Prayer schedule, please contact:

Lori Koschnik @ Lori@HomewardBoundPro.com or by calling 920-901-4373
